My name is _____.

You probably already know that we are conducting research on families in all regions of Russia in order to understand the impact of economic reform on the daily life of Russian citizens.

We need to talk to all members of your family in our discussion without excluding anyone, and therefore ask you to answer the questions on this questionnaire. Our discussion will cover how you live, how your health is, how you eat, whether you have enough to live on.

Your family, as well as four thousand other families in Russia, was randomly chosen by computer for this research.

All information collected in the course of this research will be used only in synthesized form. No one, except myself and the organizers of this research, will know about our discussions.

We understand that you will spend some of your free time on the interview. Besides this, of course, answering our questions is work. Therefore, we will pay you as much as our resources allow.

Participation in our survey is voluntary; you always have the right to refuse to answer the questions.

Before we begin the interview, I would like to precisely define the words "family" and "household," which will appear often in our questionnaire. By family or household, in this survey, we mean all people living with you and having common incomes and expenses with you.

“I would like you to talk to me about what you ate and drank in the last twenty-four hours—from the time you woke up in the morning until you went to bed at night. If you ate or drank anything during the night, please tell me about that also. Don’t forget what you ate and drank away from home. Include all forms of food and drink that you consumed.

It is also important for me to know where you ate and where the food was prepared. Now, let’s begin.”
